What is a Humanities Major?

Humanities expand our knowledge of human cultures and help us understand what binds us together and what differentiates us from one another in a global context.

Humanities is the study of human culture and systems of power:

- Race, gender, class, nationality, language, sexual orientation, ability, etc.
- Popular culture and media
- Social justice and revolution
- Storytelling cultures
- Global cultural, political, and social histories
- Social relationships

Studying in the Humanities

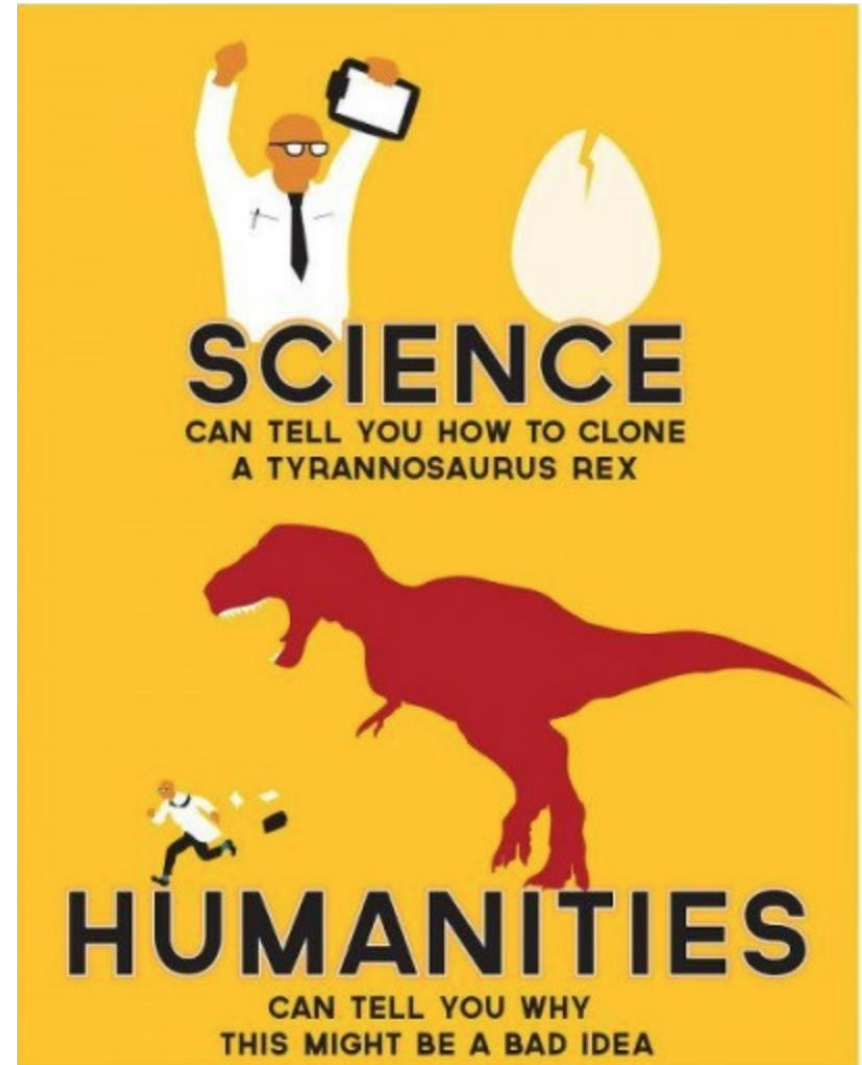

“As we delve into our particular subjects, we’re invited to not lose sight of the general awe of what it means to be a human.”

What do I study in the Humanities?

Humanities students are interdisciplinary!

Humanities and Culture students study across traditional academic disciplines and develop projects reflecting a broad range of interests and perspectives:

- Gender and Women's Studies
- Ethnic Studies
- Film & Television Studies
- Digital Humanities
- LGBTQ+ studies
- History
- Law
- Literature & Language
- Social Justice & Activism
- Anthropology
- Philosophy

Have you ever...? <Chat time>

Respond in the chat if you have ever...

...enjoyed talking to your friends or family about a movie or TV show? (which one)?
